Project Abstract
U.S. Virgin Islands Virtual Information Database (VIVID)

The United States Virgin Islands (USVI) is engaged in planning activities and is seeking funding for the establishment of a P-20 statewide longitudinal data system (SLDS) to improve student performance and increase citizenry success and create a culture of data use. The Virgin Islands Department of Education (VIDE) has a Structured Query Language (SQL) data base with core student demographic and assessment data used to generate NCLB reports, the VIDE does not have a data warehouse. Therefore the VIDE lacks the ability to gather, and analyze various data that would be used to improve instruction and make critical policy decisions. The VIDE has undertaken several initiatives to establish a territory-wide data infrastructure, rooted in K-12 data. The USVI established the Interim Data Governance Council (IDGC) to formalize a governance structure to set direction for data policies, procedures and quality initiatives in the territory with representation from 14 different agencies within the USVI. The VIDE has developed an Information Systems Architecture Plan to create a SLDS design and is in the process of implementing a territory-wide student information system to serve as a single repository for USVI K-12 student data.

Based on a review of USVI needs and best practices in other states that have implemented an SLDS, the USVI has developed a three year grant proposal to achieve the following eight outcomes for our planned SLDS to be named VIVID (Virgin Islands Virtual Information Database). The table below indicates how these outcomes achieve or support the seven capabilities and 12 elements of the IES SLDS grant requirements.

Phase	Project Outcome Achievement	Capabilities and Elements
Phase 1 Project Initiation & Planning	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Outcome 1 – Formalize governance • Outcome 2 - Prioritize data requirements (benchmark outcome stages 1-5) • Outcome 3 – Establish data audit system 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Capabilities (2, 3*, 4*, 5*, 6*) • Elements (1*, 2*, 6*, 8*)

Project Narrative

A. Need for the Project

Overview

The United States Virgin Islands (USVI) is located in the Caribbean Sea and the Atlantic Ocean, about 90 miles east of Puerto Rico and immediately west of the British Virgin Islands. The territory consists of four main islands: St. Thomas, St. John, St. Croix and Water Island, as well as several dozen smaller islands, all volcanic in origin and hilly. The combined land area (133.73 square miles) is roughly twice the size of Washington, D.C., and its approximately 108,000 inhabitants consist of a melting pot of ethnicities from other Caribbean islands, the U.S. mainland, Europe, South America and Asia. The 2000 Census lists 74% African American, 13% Caucasian, 5% Hispanic and 8% other, although more recently, a steady stream of Hispanics from the western Caribbean continue to enter the Virgin Islands seeking improved economic conditions, or, a stepping stone to the U.S. mainland.

Public education in the Virgin Islands is managed by the Department of Education (VIDE) which consists of two school districts – St. Thomas/St. John and St. Croix, which serves a total of 15,500 public school students. There are 33 schools and approximately 1,422 teachers on the three main islands. The University of the Virgin Islands (UVI), founded in 1962, is an accredited, public, liberal arts institution serving approximately 2,600 full and part-time students in the two districts. It employs 500 faculty and staff and offers several two-year, four-year and post graduate degrees.

The territory does not yet have a P-20 statewide longitudinal data system (SLDS). We are eager to learn from and build on the successful efforts and best practices of states that are further along the path of developing a SLDS and look forward to sharing our lessons learned with others.

Bringing together key personnel from the central government and non-governmental agencies, the VIDE introduced the idea of an SLDS as an essential tool to capture and address the ongoing data needs of the school system and the community. Together, agency heads agreed to name the proposed SLDS, the Virgin Islands Virtual Information Database (VIVID) which will provide critical data to help improve citizen success and economic development, by focusing on improving student achievement and preparing students for college and the workforce. VIVID will primarily contain educational data from VIDE, school districts, and the University of the Virgin Islands (UVI), and will be supplemented with data from other agencies such as, the Departments of Labor (DOL), Human Services (DHS), Health (DOH), and other related departments. The collaboration between these agencies will be enabled by formal Memorandums of Understanding (MOU) that will articulate shared data requirements and the governance of data sharing and usage.

While the USVI does not benefit from the economies of scale achieved by larger states, our close knit community allows for collaboration among high-ranking officials. We are also able to focus our efforts on a manageable student population.

Background

As evident in data below the current educational system is not satisfactorily meeting the needs of the citizenry of the Virgin Islands. Indications of this are manifested in poor student performance on the Virgin Islands Territorial Assessment of Learning (VITAL), SAT, and other standardized assessments. Other indicators include high failure rates and unacceptable numbers of student dropouts. Additional data, as reported in the USVI Kids Count Data Book of 2008, is shown below.

Table 1. Comparison of USVI and US population on Selected Performance Indicators

Performance Indicator	USVI	U.S. Population
Children living in single mother families	40%	32%
Children living in poverty	29.5%	18%
USVI detached youth (teens ages 16-19 not in school and not working): 2006	22.8%	8%
2007 SAT scale scores in Critical Reading	433 - Male and 423 - Female	504 - Male and 502 - Female
2007 SAT scale scores in Math	425 - Males and 385 - Females	533 - Males and 499 - Females

Other indicators from the USVI No Child Left Behind (NCLB) 2007-08 Report Card include:

- 5 of 33 USVI schools met AYP in 2007-08.
- 88.5% of core classes are not taught by highly qualified teacher.

As measured by the Virgin Islands Territorial Assessment of Learning (VITAL), the statewide assessment, in 2007-2008 grades three through eight and eleven less than 50% of our students met proficiency in reading and mathematics as shown below:

- 36.2% of 4th graders scored at or above proficient in reading.
- 41.9% of 4th graders scored at or above proficient on math.
- 22.2% of 7th graders scored at or above proficient on the in reading.
- 40.6% of 7th graders scored at or above proficient on math.
- 40.6% of 7th graders scored at or above proficient on the in reading; 36.1% of 7th graders scored at or above proficient on math.
- 29.5% of 11th graders scored at or above proficient on in reading in.
- 44.4% of 11th graders scored at or above proficient on math.

Clearly, Virgin Islands students are underperforming. The USVI needs to collect and analyze data to better understand root causes of poor performance. Implementing a successful SLDS across the territory will assist the VIDE in getting to the root of the problem as never before, and offer longitudinal data for sound policy making decisions leading to improved student achievement.

The consequences of poor performance, as outlined above, result in penalties which affect our community through lost opportunities for our students to enter college, poor preparation for jobs, the inability of the workforce to sustain key industries due to a poorly skilled workforce and an overall negative impact on our economy. As part of the SLDS implementation, USVI will address the intricacies of gathering data from various government departments. The government agencies that have been engaged in the VIVID planning process are eager to see longitudinal data consolidation into VIVID allow the USVI to capture the continuum of indicators, such as early warning and workforce readiness indicators, necessary to help our children successfully advance through their educational career to become productive citizens.

- Enable UVI to more efficiently tailor its program offerings to the needs of USVI citizens
- Improved job attainment and income levels among drop-outs and graduates

B. Project Outcomes Related to Systems Requirements and Implementation

To meet the needs described above, VIDE has developed eight “product” outcomes for VIVID (see VI-1 through VI – 8). These outcomes describe the major tasks required to create a successful SLDS. In addition, there are five “benchmark” outcomes (Stages 1 – 5) that describe the scope and staging of data to be loaded into VIVID. Each outcome is cross-referenced to the required capabilities and data elements in Appendix C. This section provides the approach and tasks to achieve each outcome.

VI-1 Formalize governance structure to identify, prioritize and share data to ensure data quality, appropriate provision of services and enable policy making on what works.

The USVI has established an Interim Data Governance Council (DGC) to facilitate and enable the exchange of data among agencies utilizing standard data structures, formats and data definitions. The primary goals of the Governance Council are:

- Provide executive leadership and support for inter-agency collaboration around data
- Define the purpose of VIVID, prioritize data to be loaded, and determine how it will be collected
- Define territory-wide policies guiding the use and management of data, including a territory data quality and audit capability and a Data Request Process
- Develop territory-wide data standards and definitions to develop an inter-agency common data language and avoid unnecessary burden and duplication of data collection (e.g., data dictionary)
- Provide direction on the technical architecture of VIVID

The Interim Data Governance Council is drafting an Executive Order, which will be presented to the Governor for his signature. This order authorizes the establishment of VIVID. Simultaneously, the DGC has requested legislation to create a permanent Data Governance Council and long-term support and funding for VIVID. Tasks within this outcome include:

- a. Assign a Data Governance Council Coordinator (DGCC)
- b. Develop Memorandum of Understanding (MOUs) to formalize agreements
- c. Develop roles and responsibilities, rules and guidelines for what data are shared and how, where data will be stored, how often data will be updated, who will conduct what analyses, how privacy will be protected, and agree to match data records
- d. Form and support governance sub-committees to develop standards and provide project direction, support and decision-making. Subcommittees may include governance issues within VIDE and the school districts, data requests, technical issues and research and/or data quality.
- e. Examine legal and policy issues surrounding data matches and develop cross agency agreements governing data access issues to ensure compliance with Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) as well as any other state and federal requirements.
- f. Create Governance project charter identifying overall performance indicators for specific periods during the implementation process

VI-2 Prioritize and implement shared data requirements for VIDE, St. Thomas-St. John and St. Croix Local Education Agencies (LEAs), UVI, DOL, DHS and DOH

The Interim Data Governance Council is identifying and prioritizing shared data requirements for all participating agencies. All required SLDS elements will be met within VIVID.

VIVID will include data from all participating agencies. Each agency will be the authoritative source of data for its own “sector.” There will also be shared data defined through MOUs.

The diagram below illustrates the data sharing design concept and lists examples of data elements stored for each agency (into VIVID sectors). The shared data elements will require MOUs, and benchmark outcome stages for the prioritized requirements of VIVID.
