Purpose of Component

The primary purpose of the Human Resources (HR) component that is applicable to non-degree-granting institutions and related administrative offices is to collect the number of staff by employment status (full time and part time) and primary function/occupational activity. In odd-numbered years (e.g., 2011-12) such as this year, the purpose is also to collect data by race/ethnicity and gender. The reporting of data by race/ethnicity and gender is optional in even-numbered years such as 2010-11.

Changes in Reporting

There were no changes to this survey form this year; however, the reporting of faculty and staff by race/ethnicity and gender is required this year as it is in odd-numbered years.

Top ▲

General Instructions

Context Boxes

Context boxes (previously known as caveat boxes) are provided on several screens to give institutions the opportunity to provide more information about survey items. The context box called, "Human Resources Survey Evaluation," which is located at the end of the HR component is used to assess whether future changes should be made to definitions, instructions, and/or items collected and is also used to list any staff who were difficult to categorize.

Top ▲

Reporting period covered

The period of reporting is intended to provide a snapshot of your human resources/payroll data at one point in the fall. Persons on the payroll of the institution as of November 1, 2011 should be reported in the HR component.

Top ▲

Reporting Staff by Primary Function/Occupational Activity

- Staff members are counted only once even if employed in multiple ways (e.g., a full-time staff member who also teaches part time on a per course basis is counted only as full time). In other words, report a full-time staff member only once as full time, even if the staff member has an additional overload part-time appointment, contract or course payment. Otherwise, count as part time. The staff member's term of contract/teaching period is not considered in making the determination of full or part time, only the type of appointment at the snapshot date. For example, a full-time, one-term appointment should be considered full time for the purpose of this report.
- For IPEDS purposes, Librarians and Counselors must be classified as Other professionals (support/service) only.
- Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) codes and categories are based on the 2000 revision and are provided to aid institutions in their classification of staff by primary functions/occupational activities. Information on each primary function/occupational activity can be found under the section called, "Detailed Instructions."
- Staff must be assigned to ONE category based on work performed, skills, education, training, and credentials.
- If a staff member performs in more than one occupation, he/she should be classified in the occupation that requires the highest level of skill. If there is no measurable difference in skill, the staff member should be included in the functional category (occupation) in which they spend the most time.
- Supervisors of professional and technical workers usually have a background similar to the workers they supervise, and are therefore classified with the workers they supervise. Likewise, team leaders, lead workers and supervisors of production, sales, and service workers who spend at least 20 percent of their time performing work similar to the workers they supervise are classified with the workers they supervise.
- First-line managers and supervisors of production, service, and sales workers who spend more than 80 percent of their time performing supervisory activities are classified separately in the appropriate supervisor category, since their work activities are distinct from those of the workers they supervise. First-line managers are generally found in smaller establishments where they perform both supervisory and management functions, such as accounting, marketing, and personnel work.
- Hospitals, medical centers, and other entities that offer postsecondary education programs as part of their mission should report only those staff who work full time or part time in the postsecondary education division or component of the institution. If a staff member works full time for the institution, but only part time in the postsecondary education division or component, for purposes of this survey, that person should be reported as part time in his or her primary function/occupational activity in the postsecondary education division or component.

Reporting Persons by Racial/Ethnic Category

Reporting Persons by Racial/Ethnic Category (1997 OMB)

This information is being collected in compliance with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 and Sec. 421(a)(1) of the Carl D. Perkins Vocational Education Act. These instructions correspond with the Final Guidance on Maintaining, Collecting, and Reporting Racial and Ethnic Data to the U.S. Department of Education, published in the Federal Register on October 19, 2007.

Method of collection - Institutions must collect race and ethnicity information using a 2-question format. The first question is whether the respondent is Hispanic/Latino. The second question is whether the respondent is from one or more races from the following list: American Indian or Alaska Native, Asian, Black or African American, Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander, and White. Institutions should allow students and staff to self-identify their race and ethnicity. For further details on the guidance for collecting data, please see the full Federal Register notice.

Method of reporting aggregate data - Institutions must report aggregate data to the U.S. Department of Education using the NINE categories below. Racial/ethnic designations are requested only for United States citizens, resident aliens, and other eligible non-citizens.

- Hispanic or Latino, regardless of race

For Non-Hispanic/Latino individuals:

- American Indian or Alaska Native
- Asian
- Black or African American
- Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander
- White
- Two or more races

In addition, the following categories may be used:

- Nonresident alien
- Race and ethnicity unknown

Racial/ethnic descriptions - Racial/ethnic designations as used in this survey do not denote scientific definitions of anthropological origins. The categories are:

- Hispanic or Latino- A person of Cuban, Mexican, Puerto Rican, South or Central American, or other Spanish culture or origin, regardless of race.
- American Indian or Alaska Native- A person having origins in any of the original peoples of North and South America (including Central America) who maintains cultural identification through tribal affiliation or community attachment.
- Asian- A person having origins in any of the original peoples of the Far East, Southeast Asia, or the Indian Subcontinent, including, for example, Cambodia, China, India, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Pakistan, the Philippine Islands, Thailand, and Vietnam.
- Black or African American- A person having origins in any of the black racial groups of Africa.
- Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander- A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Hawaii, Guan, Samoa, or other Pacific Islands.
- White - A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Europe, the Middle East, or North Africa.

Other descriptive categories

- Nonresident alien - A person who is not a citizen or national of the United States and who is in this country on a visa or temporary basis and does not have the right to remain indefinitely. NOTE - Nonresident aliens are to be reported separately, in the boxes provided, rather than included in any of the seven racial/ethnic categories. Resident aliens and other eligible (for financial aid purposes) non-citizens who are not citizens or nationals of the United States and who have been admitted as legal immigrants for the purpose of obtaining permanent resident alien status (and who hold either an alien registration card (Form I-551 or I-151), a Temporary Resident Card (Form I-688), or an Arrival-Departure Record (Form I-94) with a notation that conveys legal immigrant status such as Section 207 Refugee, Section 208 Asylee, Conditional Entrant Parolee or Cuban-Haitian) are to be reported in the appropriate racial/ethnic categories along with United States citizens.
- Race and ethnicity unknown - This category is used only if the person did not select EITHER a racial or ethnic designation.

General

- 2\) How do I know if I must complete the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission \(EEOC\) EEO-1 survey form?

Since the EEO-1 survey form is conducted by EEOC, you must contact EEOC directly to find out about their survey reporting requirements. For more information about EEO-1 reporting, please refer to the following EEOC website, which includes contact information: <http://www.eeoc.gov/eo1survey/index.html>.

4) How often are data for the HR component collected?

- Data for the EAP and Salaries sections are collected annually from degree-granting institutions during the Winter data collection cycle.
- Data for the Fall Staff section can be reported by degree-granting institutions annually, however, the Fall Staff section is REQUIRED biennially in odd-numbered years (e.g., Fall 2009, Fall 2011, etc.). When the Fall Staff section is optional during even-numbered years (e.g., Fall 2008, Fall 2010, etc.), IPEDS simply serves as a reporting mechanism for those institutions that are required to provide data annually to their states or to other agencies.

Back to top

5) How is the EAP section related to the Salaries and Fall Staff sections of the HR component?

The EAP section is related to the Salaries and Fall Staff sections in the following ways:

- EAP section versus Salaries section -
- Those staff members reported as "Primarily instruction" and/or "Instruction combined with research and/or public service" on the full-time, non-medical school, page in EAP must be reported in the Salaries section.
- EAP section versus Fall Staff section -
- All staff reported in the EAP section must be reported in the Fall Staff section in the same employment status categories (full time, part time) and primary functions/occupational activities.

(NOTE: There is no direct relationship between the Salaries and Fall Staff sections other than the number of full-time instructional staff (classified as "Primarily instruction" and "Instruction combined with research and/or public service") in the Salaries section MUST be less than or equal to the number of full-time staff classified as staff whose primary responsibility is instruction, research, and/or public service in the Fall Staff section.)

Back to top

6) How do the staff whose primary responsibility is instruction, research, and/or public service in the EAP and Fall Staff sections relate to each other?

Staff whose primary responsibility is instruction, research, and/or public service in the Fall Staff section consist of the same group of people in the EAP section; however, in the EAP section, these staff members include the following staff: Primarily instruction, Instruction combined with research and/or public service, Primarily research, and Primarily public service.

Back to top

7) What is the period of reporting for the HR component?

The period of reporting is intended to provide a snapshot of your human resources/payroll data at one point in the fall.

- With the exception of the Fall Staff (long version), Part L (new hires) section, persons on the payroll of the institution as of November 1, 2011 should be reported in the HR component. (For more details on who to include and exclude from the HR component, refer to the next two FAQs or refer to the sections of the complete instructions called "Who to include in this report" and "Who NOT to include in this report.")
- Part L of the Fall Staff version that is applicable to degree-granting institutions with 15 or more full-time staff has a different reporting period from the other parts of the HR survey. Part L includes full-time permanent new hires on the payroll of the institution between July 1 and October 31, 2011 either for the first time (new to the institution) or after a break in service AND who are still on the payroll of the institution as November 1, 2011. For additional details about reporting data for Part L, refer to the complete set of instructions.

Back to top

8) What type of staff should be included in the IPEDS HR component?

The following types of staff should be included in the HR component:

- Staff who are on sabbatical leave and staff who are on leave, but remain on the payroll.
- Staff whose primary responsibility is instruction, research, and/or public service and who are hired to temporarily replace staff whose primary responsibility is also instruction, research, and/or public service AND who are also on sabbatical leave or on leave without pay.
- "Visiting" staff whose primary responsibility is instruction, research, and/or public service and who are paid by your institution.
- Adjunct staff whose primary responsibility is instruction, research, and/or public service and who are employed on a full-time or on a part-time basis in the primary function/occupation activity for which they were hired.
- Staff at off-campus centers associated with the campus covered by this report. (Do not include staff who work at branch campuses located in a foreign country.)

9) What type of staff should NOT be included in the IPEDS HR component?

The following types of employees should NOT be included in the HR component:

- Staff on leave without pay.
- Staff in the military or religious orders who are not paid by your institution.
- Staff whose services are contracted by or donated to the institution.
- Casual employees (hired on an ad-hoc or occasional basis to meet short-term needs).
- Undergraduate students.
- Students in the College Work-Study Program.
- Staff who work strictly in hospitals associated with medical schools.

Back to top

10) Should instructional staff who provide instruction in credit and/or non-credit courses be included in the HR component?

Yes. Instructional staff who provide instruction in credit and/or non-credit courses/activities should be included in the HR component.

Back to top

11) Where do I classify a professor teaching courses via distance education who is not based out of the college?

If at least 50 percent of their work is teaching, consider them "Primarily instruction" then evaluate their "faculty status." Staff at off-campus centers/sites associated with the campus covered by this report should be included in the HR component, however, staff who work at branch campuses located in a foreign country should NOT be included in the HR component. Also, the staff must be on the payroll of the institution.

Back to top

12) Do we include guest lecturers when we report to IPEDS?

If a guest lecturer is hired by the institution and placed on the institution's payroll then the person should be included in the HR component. However, guest lecturers typically are given honoraria or lecture fees and thus are not paid through the institution's payroll accounts.

Back to top

13) Should I include full-time staff who are paid by another entity or who are paid indirectly by my institution?

No. Include only paid employees of your institution, recognizing that this may undercount the number of staff.

Back to top

14) How do we handle individuals who are employees and also taking courses?

- 1 - If they are student workers (e.g., College-Work study), exclude them from the HR component.
- 2 - If they are employed as graduate assistants to assist in the classroom or laboratory or to do research, include them as part-time employees in the graduate assistants category.
- 3 - If they are employed in regular jobs, either full time or part time, include them according to their primary function/occupational activity.

Back to top

15) How do I classify individuals by contract length/teaching period?

Individuals classified as full-time staff whose primary responsibility is instruction, research, and/or public service on Fall Staff (long version) and as full-time instructional staff on Salaries should be reported in those two sections on the basis of the contracted (teaching) period NOT on the basis of the number of installments in which salaries are paid and as follows:

- Less-than-9-month - applies to individuals who are employed full time for LESS than 2 semesters, 3 quarters, 2 trimesters, or two 4-month sessions.
- 9/10-month - applies to individuals who are employed full time for two semesters, three quarters, two trimesters, two 4-month sessions, or the equivalent
- 11/12-month - applies to individuals who are employed full time for the entire year, usually a period of 11 or 12 months.

Back to top

16) Are there codes and/or categories used to assist in the assignment of employees to the primary function/occupational activity categories?

The Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) codes and categories, which are based on the 2000 revision, are listed in the instructions to aid institutions in their classification of employees by primary function/occupational activity.

Back to top

17) How do I know if my data are consistent across sections?

There are internal edit checks in place to ensure consistency. Also, some cells will be pre-populated from data in other sections to help ensure consistent reporting.

Back to top

18) Can I change my data after completing a section?

Yes. Data may be changed after completing any section. Once edit checks are run, errors may be detected that will require keyholders to revise data in one section to agree with what is reported in another section. Data cannot be locked until all errors are resolved.

Back to top

19) What HR information must non-degree-granting institutions and related administrative offices report to IPEDS?

Prior to 2009-10, the HR component applicable to non-degree-granting institutions consisted of the following two sections: Employees by Assigned Position (EAP) and Fall Staff. In 2009-10, the EAP and Fall Staff sections were combined into one section. For odd-numbered years (e.g., 2009-10), the reporting of data by race/ethnicity and gender is required, and for even-numbered years (e.g., 2010-11), the reporting of race/ethnicity and gender is optional. Another big change involved consolidating the following four categories into the single category called, "Staff whose primary responsibility is instruction, research, and/or public service:" Primarily instruction, Instruction/research/public service, Primarily research, and Primarily public service.

Back to top

EAP

1) Is the EAP section applicable to all institutions and administrative offices?

The EAP section is applicable to degree-granting institutions and administrative offices. The medical school pages of EAP are applicable to institutions with M.D. and/or D.O. programs.

Back to top

2) Are there different versions of EAP?

NO. There are different sections to the form. Data are collected separately for full- and part-time employees. Also, employees in the medical school are to be reported separately.

Back to top

3) What information is collected in the EAP section?

The EAP section collects the total number of employees at the institution by full- and part-time status, faculty status, and primary function/occupational activity. Medical school employees are reported separately.

Back to top

4) What do you mean by "medical school" staff?

Staff employed by or staff working in the medical school (M.D. and/or D.O.) component of a postsecondary institution or in a freestanding medical school. Does not include staff employed by or employees working strictly in a hospital associated with a medical school or those who work in health or allied health schools or departments such as dentistry, veterinary medicine, nursing, or dental hygiene unless the health or allied health schools or departments are affiliated with (housed in or under the authority of) the medical school. (The medical school pages of EAP are applicable to institutions with M.D. and/or D.O. programs only.)

Back to top

5) What is the difference between the "Primarily instruction" and "Instruction combined with research and/or public service" categories on EAP?

Primarily instruction is one of the primary functions/occupational activities that relates to persons whose specific assignments customarily are made for the purpose of providing instruction or teaching and who may hold academic rank titles of professor, associate professor, assistant professor, instructor, lecturer, or the equivalent. These employees may also hold titles such as deans, directors, or the equivalent, as well as associate deans, assistant deans, and executive officers of academic departments (chairpersons, heads or equivalent) IF their principal activity is instruction. Instruction combined with research and/or public service is one of the primary functions/occupational activities that relates to persons for whom it is not possible to differentiate between instruction or teaching, research, and public service because each of these functions is an integral component of his/her regular assignment. These employees may hold academic rank titles of professor, associate professor, assistant professor, instructor, lecturer, or the equivalent. These employees may also hold titles such as deans, directors, or the equivalent, as well as associate deans, assistant deans, and executive officers of academic departments (chairpersons, heads, or equivalent) IF their principal activity is instruction combined with research and/or public service.

Back to top

6) How should I count Deans and Vice Presidents (VP) who are tenured staff on EAP?

If the Dean's or VP's primary function is Executive/Administrative, they should be counted as Executive/Administrative/Managerial on EAP in the Tenured column. Likewise, these employees should be included on Fall Staff as Executive/Administrative/Managerial; they are not to be included in the Salaries section since the Salaries section includes full-time instructional staff only. However, if the Dean's or VP's primary function is "Instruction" or "Instruction combined with research/public service" then include them as such AND report them on EAP and Fall Staff as staff whose primary responsibility is instruction, research, and/or public service AND on Salaries, but only if they are full time.

Back to top

7) Where do we report research professionals who do not have faculty status?

Report them on the "Primarily research" row in the "Without faculty status" column on EAP.

Back to top

8) Where do I place employees such as research scientists and research engineers on EAP?

Place research scientists and research engineers on the "Primarily research" row and in the appropriate column on EAP.

Back to top

9) How should research assistants, associates, etc. be handled on EAP?

If they are graduate students at your institution performing research or graduate assistant duties while enrolled, report them in the "Graduate assistants" column and on the "Primarily research" row of Part B (part-time employees) on EAP. If they are not graduate students, but are performing discipline oriented research work (e.g., biology, materials engineering, etc.) generally requiring a bachelor's or higher degree, report them on the "Primarily research" row in either Part A (full-time employees) or Part B (part-time employees) on EAP in the appropriate column.

Back to top

10) My tenured and tenure-track staff whose primary responsibility in instruction, research, and/or public service are generally expected to devote 40 percent time and effort to teaching, 40 percent to research, and 20 percent to service. Where should I report these tenured and tenure-track staff?

Report the staff on the Primarily Instruction line on EAP and in the appropriate faculty status category.

Back to top

11) Where are postdoctorals reported? Should they follow the job function they are performing?

Postdoctorals primarily conducting research should be reported as "Primarily research" while postdoctorals primarily providing instruction should be reported as Primarily instruction or Instruction combined with research and/or public service on EAP. Since postdoctorals normally do not have faculty status, report them as "Without faculty status."

Back to top

12) Who should I report as "Without faculty status" on EAP?

While institutions may use different designations of who is functioning as "faculty," there is generally some designation of whether or not an employee has faculty status. Report employees with faculty status in either the Tenured, On Tenure track, or Not on tenure track column by primary function/occupational activity. Institutions may also employ individuals in the various occupational categories who do not have or are not eligible to have faculty status. Report these individuals in the Without faculty status column. For example, an individual hired as a staff member primarily to do research on a 3-year contract without tenure eligibility should be reported as Primarily research in the Not on tenure track column. A postdoctoral research associate, because they do not have faculty status, would be reported as Primarily research in the Without faculty status column.

Back to top

Salaries

1) Is the Salaries section applicable to all institutions?

NO. The Salaries section is only applicable to degree-granting institutions, unless one or more of the following are true:

- All instructional staff are employed on a part time basis.
- All instructional staff are military personnel.
- All instructional staff contribute their services (e.g., are members of a religious order).
- All instructional staff teach pre-clinical or clinical medicine.

3) How should employees on a "confidential payroll" (where salary is unavailable) be handled?

Make the best estimate of the employees' salaries and include the salaries in the corresponding cells of the salary ranges on Fall Staff (long version). Also, if the employee is a full-time instructional staff member who is to be included on the Salaries section, estimate the staff member's salary.

5) If a person currently employed by an institution accepts a new full-time position within the institution, is that person considered a new hire?

NO. The currently employed person is not considered a new hire. New hires are full-time permanent staff on the payroll of the institution between July 1 and October 31, 2011 either for the first time (new to the institution) or after a break in service AND who are still on the payroll of the institution as November 1, 2011. Also, new hires do not include persons who have returned from sabbatical leave or full-time staff who are working less-than-9-month contracts/teaching periods and whose primary responsibility is instruction, research, and/or public service.
