

Are the nation's eighth-graders making progress in Geography?

Score Trend

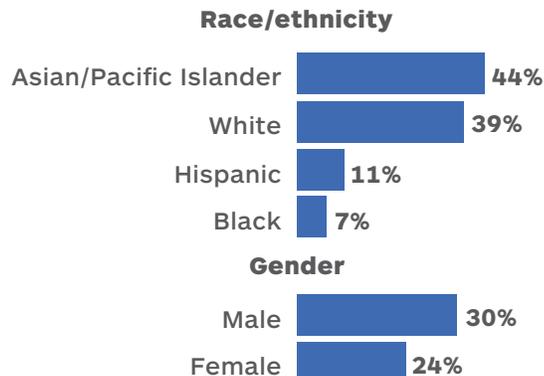

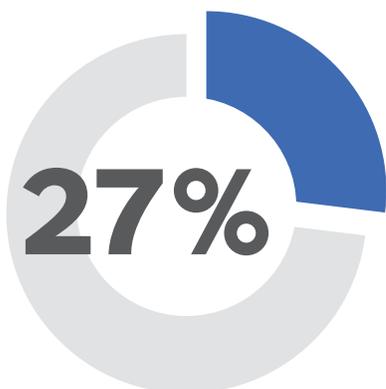

Scores increased for White, Black, and Hispanic students since 1994

Students At or Above Proficient Level

Twenty-seven percent of students performed at or above the Proficient level in 2014

Are the nation's eighth-graders making progress in Geography? (cont.)

Score Gap

White-Black and White-Hispanic score gaps narrowed compared to 1994

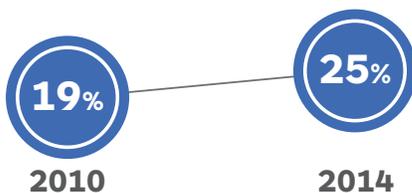

NOTE: Score gaps are calculated based on the difference between unrounded average scores.

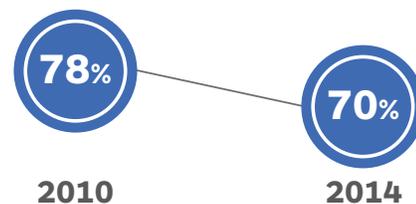

Learning Contexts

Higher percentage of students in 2014 than in 2010 reported using computers for social studies and lower percentage reported reading from a textbook at least weekly

Use computers at school for social studies

Read material from a textbook

SOURCE: U.S. Department of Education, Institute of Education Sciences, National Center for Education Statistics, National Assessment of Educational Progress (NAEP), various years, 1994-2014 Geography Assessments.

EXPLORE FURTHER at http://nationsreportcard.gov/hgc_2014/