

Data for Decisions (Video)

Resources from the National Center for Education Statistics

Data for Decisions introduces a range of resources that are available from the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES). Many of the products and services highlighted have been designed to improve the collection and maintenance of education data from elementary through postsecondary levels. Other referenced products include various NCES databases that have been packaged onto CD-ROMs for improved access.

This video was produced specifically for working professionals in the education community. It not only summarizes individual NCES products and services, but also explains how the resources can help users collect more accurate, timely, and comparable education data.

This resource does not contain any actual data, nor does it reflect any type of Federal data maintenance mandate.
