Form: Consent to Participate
Question wording: In years past you responded to one or more surveys for the Education Longitudinal Study of 2002 (ELS:2002). This study is sponsored by the U.S. Department of Education and includes about 16,000 other participants who were selected from high schools across the country in 2002 and 2004. The purpose of ELS:2002 is to understand young people’s transition from high school to adulthood, including the different pathways people take towards further education and the world of work. Today, we are asking you to complete a follow-up interview which will ask questions about your education, your most recent work experiences, your family, and your community. On average, it takes about 35 minutes to complete, depending on your responses. Participation is voluntary. Your answers may be used only for statistical purposes and may not be disclosed, or used, in identifiable form for any other purpose except as required by law [Education Sciences Reform Act of 2002 (ESRA 2002) Public Law 107-279, Section 183]. You may withdraw from the study at any point. However, your answers are very important because they represent many others who were not selected to take part. You may skip any question that you don’t want to answer.

Form: Consent for Future Participation
Question wording: We are almost done with this survey. But first, we want to let you know that some survey participants may be invited to participate in future follow-up studies to learn more about their education and employment experiences. These future follow-up studies will be led by external researchers not affiliated with the Department of Education. We would like to seek your permission to allow RTI to re-contact you on behalf of one of the external researchers. Your participation in any future study is completely voluntary, but there is no substitute for your response.

Are you willing to be contacted about these future studies?
